

THELMA

THELMA SADOFF CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Press Release

August 14, 2014

Contact: Jacqui Corsi, Director of Marketing, jacqui@thelmaarts.org

Exhibit featuring 18 of Wisconsin's most exciting artists opens Thursday Free reception Thursday, August 21

Thelma Sadoff Center for the Arts (THELMA) is the venue for an exciting new group exhibit featuring some of Wisconsin's most prominent artists.

45 North: THELMA Summer Invitational opens Thursday, August 21 with a free reception from 6 to 8 pm. The two-level exhibit, curated by Shane McAdams, features 45 pieces from 18 different artists. McAdams, an adjunct professor at Marian University, has a studio in New York.

"This thrilling new exhibit will bridge the gap between the Fond du Lac art scene and those in Milwaukee and other areas of the state," said Kevin Miller, THELMA's executive director.

The artists in the exhibit are Peter Barrickman, Kimberly Benson, Tom Berenz, Derrick Buisch, Willy Carpenter, Michael Davidson, Breehan James, Frank Juarez, Greg Klassen, Kay Knight, Keith Nelson, James Pederson, Andrew Redington, Rafael Salas, Lynn Tomaszewski, Jason Vaughn, Shane Walsh, and Scott Zieher.

The exhibit runs through Sunday, September 21.

THELMA members and students always have free access to the Contemporary Wing. For adults who are not members, admission is $5.

The Contemporary Wing is open 11 am to 4 pm Wednesday through Sunday with extended hours Thursdays until 8 pm. THELMA is located at 51 Sheboygan St., in the heart of Downtown Fond du Lac's Arts and Entertainment District.

THELMA is a member-based, privately-funded non-profit dedicated to providing experiences not readily available in the area. Intimate concerts in the Great Hall, street concerts, films, and art from world-renowned artists are available at THELMA. THELMA also offers a stunning backdrop for weddings, meetings and all social and corporate gatherings.

Learn more about THELMA at thelmaarts.org, Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn.